This thriller about human cloning was fortuitously published hot on the heels of the "Dolly" cloning controversy. "Jumps with engaging brio". -- Publishers Weekly A tautly written, terrifying novel of a scientific experiment gone awry. When a violent sociopath learns he is one of ten identical clones, he undertakes the grisly task of assuring that his identity stays intact -- at any cost. This novel is the first to have jumped into the ethical and moralistic fray of the cloning controversy, and attracted a great deal of attention for film, broadcast and reprint rights.
